

Lynn A. Bahnken
Armonk, NY 10504

To Whom It May Concern,

I am delighted to have the opportunity to provide a letter of recommendation for Alexandra Reynolds. Ali and I met in 2004 when I was remodeling my home in Palm Beach, Florida. My primary residence is in Westchester, New York and I had been using the services of individual firms for architecture, general construction and interior design for remodeling my weekend home in Florida. The entire team was made up of highly skilled professionals, but lacked overall leadership and project management. I needed someone who could cohesively manage the team. Ali was recommended to me by a friend in Palm Beach.

Prior to Ali's involvement, the complex remodeling project was rudderless and moved painfully slowly. Without executive leadership, we were constantly becoming bogged down in resolving small issues that the local team needed to address and were unable to bring focus to the matters that required my participation. This led to the project falling behind schedule, and exceeding budget.

Once Ali became involved, she added a professional process management framework. She met daily with the team in Florida, and facilitated the resolution of all routine matters. She sent me digital photographs several times a week which allowed me to monitor the progress. We spoke nearly daily to resolve issues that required my input. Within a very short period of time, the project was back on schedule and budget.

Ali demonstrated professionalism, knowledge of construction, decorating and procurement, with a sensitivity to all of the personalities necessary to lead a costly and complex remodeling project. She also acted as a sub-contractor on several elements of the effort, and did a terrific job. Most importantly, I always felt that Ali shared and delivered on my priorities – high quality work and cost effective execution.

In summary, I would highly recommend Ali for project management, coordinating general construction, interior decorating and/or property management. Should you have any specific questions feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lynn Bahnken