To Whom It May Concern,

It's with great pleasure that we recommend Alexandra Cargill Reynolds to help design or remodel a kitchen. Ali saw our design from the beginning stages all the way to the finishing touches. Our project entailed the complex removal of walls in an older home. This presented issues previously unknown. Ali was able to quickly adjust her plans and ideas accordingly. Due to her extensive knowledge in the design industry, our kitchen shows itself to be the work of a true professional. Ali was able to direct us on large ideas, as well as the small details that set our kitchen apart from others. We are confident that without her expertise, we would not be this satisfied with the end result.

Ali had a presence in our home throughout the remodel and was able to troubleshoot and guide contractors on our behalf. She is meticulous, timely, professional and a pleasure to work with.

We would encourage you to work with Ali and would personally work again with her in the future. Please feel free to contact us as needed.

Regards,
